Please read the following carefully

Boarding Requirements: Thank you for choosing Cole Veterinary Clinic to care for your pet(s) while you are away. We are a hospital first and foremost, so in order to protect your pet(s) during their stay, we require them to be fully vaccinated for common transmissible diseases, including kennel cough and canine flu. In addition, all pets staying with us must be free from internal and external parasites (fleas, etc.).

Medical Illness: By having your pet board with Cole Veterinary Clinic, they will be monitored by our highly trained employees during their stay. If for some reason, your pet becomes ill or we notice a medical concern, we will do our best to contact you or your emergency contact for permission to provide medical care if necessary. If we cannot contact you, and the medical concern is causing your pet immediate pain, or they become increasingly ill, we will provide limited treatment to relieve pain or to prevent critical conditions until we can contact you for full treatment authorization. This will incur additional expenses outside of normal boarding expenses.

Feeding Guidelines: Please tell us about your pet  feeding habits so we can help them feel more  at home  We welcome you to bring their own food, however if you prefer, we will provide your pet with a gentle intestinal-health diet.

Does your pet eat: DRY CANNED BOTH      Times fed per day: ONE TWO THREE      Treats: YES NO
